Dear Oxford Historical Society Member,

It's time once again to renew your membership. Thanks to all of our members and other volunteers, the Twitchell-Rowland Homestead is now open to the public on the first and third Sundays of each month from 2 to 4 PM. If you have not already visited the Homestead please mark your calendars and list this among your 2013 resolutions of Must Do Items!

We all know many hands make the work lighter; the museum is a work in progress and there are many ongoing projects and programs that might interest you. With everyone working together, we will be able to showcase Oxford's history and offer great community programs.

Hope to see you soon at a regular membership meeting open to the public and usually held on fourth Monday of the month. Also watch for upcoming events which will be free to members.

For those of you who use the Internet, another way you can help support the Oxford Historical Society is by using Good Search instead of other search engines: it's easy to do. The Yahoo powered search engine will donate about a penny to the Society every time you do a search! In addition, shop online through their online shopping mall, GoodShop.com. You can shop at more than 2,600 top online retailers. You pay the same price as you normally would, but a percentage of the price is donated to our Society. A third option is to enroll in the Good Dining program .Eat at over 10,000 participating restaurants nationwide and you can earn up to 6% of every dollar spent on the meal as a donation to the Oxford Historical Society. Here's the web site---<http://www.goodsearch.com/>.

Member Jim Sanders has developed a Facebook page for the Oxford Historical Society. If you have a Facebook account, please check it out and "like" it!

Please fill out the enclosed membership form.
